

SOCIETY AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Mrs. Fred Aslin, Tonti av., pleasantly entertained at cards Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Christina Aslin, who will leave soon for California. In the contests favors went to Carl Macht, Miss Zoe Wyland and Mrs. George Aslin. Following this the guests enjoyed a supper with covers laid for 12.

Mrs. Mable Grindie, 319 N. Notre Dame av., entertained 12 friends at her home Wednesday evening with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Lucile Norris, 245 E. Sample st. The evening was spent with music and games and near the end the hostess served refreshments. Miss Norris will be married to Cole Hay the latter part of June. Several other affairs are being planned for her.

Mrs. Christopher Connorton, 441 Cottage Grove av., entertained her Social club at a 9 o'clock tea Wednesday afternoon. The guests numbered ten. Ferns and tulips were used for decorating.

The Notre Dame Glee club of 22 voices directed by Ward Perrott of Indianapolis proved to be the attraction of the evening at the May merry making party given last evening in Place hall. The affair was arranged by the alumni and old pupils and friends of St. Joseph academy for the benefit of the school. The main purpose was to furnish funds for a fire escape which the school has long needed, and much credit is due to those who helped make the party a delightful success.

Charles McCauley and Harry Scott afforded amusement with a raffle specialty number along with the two chorin numbers and encores by the club.

The evening was opened with an informal reception at 8 o'clock followed by the program at 8:30 o'clock.

The decorations for the hall suggested the school colors of buff and blue by the use of numerous pennants and baskets of flowers hung from the chandeliers. A large basket of pink roses suspended from the center light, while large streamers were draped to the side walls. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Six prizes, divided equally among the men and the women, were awarded to the winners at the card tables which were 30 in number. Nearly 100 couples participated in dancing.

The Shakespeare circle had its closing meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Westervelt, 527 N. Lafayette st. The program for the day consisted of the giving of the last part of the play, "Julius Caesar," in charge of Mrs. H. A. Pershing. Mrs. George A. Fulmer gave a sketch of "Anthony" and a sketch of "Brutus" was given by Mrs. A. W. Kline. A question box on the characters of the play was conducted by Mrs. E. H. Badet and during the social afternoon Shakespeare musical numbers on the victrola were enjoyed, following which the guests were taken to the Nicholson inn where a luncheon was served. Yellow tulips were used on the table center featuring the club colors of yellow and white. The club will have its annual family picnic and stunt day May 31 at Battell park.

The North Side Culture club was entertained by Mrs. Clarence D. Stouff, 1242 Woodward av., Wednesday afternoon. A short business meeting preceded the afternoon's program, given by Mrs. F. M. Leck. Her topic was a review of Tolstoy's book, "The Cossacks." Current events were given, after which the hostess served daintily appointed refreshments. The members have voted to meet during the summer months for social afternoons and the final program meeting of the year will be held May 31 at the home of Mrs. Floyd A. Deahl, 814 Van Buren st. The annual election of officers will take place.

The Cozy Corner circle was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anderson, 8 St. Joseph st. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in a social manner.

Striped Motor Veil a Novelty

By La Raconteuse.

Among the unusually smart novelties is the narrow striped chiffon motor veil. This comes in all colors or in two color effects for instance, the foundation in one and the stripe in another. This veiling may be had by the yard and is most attractive when draped either on a large or small hat.

and a luncheon was served at 5 o'clock at a prettily decorated table with places for 10 guests. Mrs. John Pierson, 221 E. Duball av., will act as hostess at a meeting of the club May 31.

The Misses Mable Ridduck and Edith Wendell gave a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at the home of the former, 605 S. Carroll st., for Miss Marguerite Strom, who will be married to Ernest Gollnick, June 1. The time was spent with games and music and a two-course luncheon was served. The guests numbered 15.

A thimble was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Thompson, 509 Carroll st., by members of the Woman's auxiliary of St. James' church. After a social afternoon of needlework, the annual business meeting of the auxiliary will be held at the clergy house, June 7. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

Section 1 of the department of literature of the Progress club was entertained in the club rooms by the chairman, Miss Edythe J. Brown. Miss Ann Du Shane entertained with several pleasing vocal numbers and the last chapter of the "Odyssey" was reviewed by Mrs. Victor F. Jones. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon.

Mrs. L. Zeitler, 742 Sansome av., was hostess at a delightful meeting of the W. C. Sunshine club on Wednesday afternoon. The members were entertained at contests, after which refreshments were served. The club will have its next meeting May 31 at the home of Mrs. Sadie Price, 1318 Van Buren st.

Members of the Pythian Tea ladies were entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon in the K. of P. hall, with Mrs. H. E. Vitou, Mrs. Catherine Williams and Mrs. Fred Rexford. The time was given to sewing and refreshments. The next tea will be at the hall on May 31.

A meeting of the Needle Craft club, to have been held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Belle Sikky, 265 E. Keasey st., was postponed for two weeks.

The meeting of the Home Needleworkers' club, to have been held yesterday with Mrs. L. A. Walker, 1407 Miami st., was postponed for two weeks.

RIVER PARK

Miss Ruth Metcalf, N. Eighth st., entertained the True Blue girls Wednesday evening. Music and contests were the principal features of the evening. Miss Elsie Kops won the favor in the musical contest and Miss Mary Winget was successful in the tree contest. At the close of the evening luncheon was served. The table decorations were tulips and roses. The next meeting will be held in two weeks, place of meeting to be decided later.

PAULINE FREDERICK A GYPSY.

Having enjoyed her wild, barefooted existence in "Audrey," Pauline Frederick was enthusiastic when told she was to play a gypsy in her next Famous Players production on the Paramount program, "The Moment Before," which is based on Israel Zangwill's play of that name. Remembering the beech-nettle which she encountered in Jacksonville while there on her last trip, she sighed with relief when informed that her particular gypsy was not of the bare-footed variety.

TWELVE BEAUTIES WILL LEAD SUFFRAGE PARADE

Will Represent States That Allow Women to Vote—36 to Follow.

International News Service.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Plans for a great suffrage parade to be held here during the convention of the woman's party the first week in June, were announced today. Twelve of the most beautiful women obtainable, garbed in snowy white, will lead the procession, which is expected to contain 40,000 women. The 12 Dianas will represent the 12 suffrage states, and their beauty indicate the desirability of granting women the franchise.

Behind the dozen beauties will march 36 other women, dressed in gray, their head bowed, and a black paper mache ball and chain attached to their ankles. They will represent the 36 other states which do not allow women to vote.

TO REHEARSE PAGEANT

Members of 13 Civic Clubs to Meet at High School Tonight.

Members of the 13 Civic clubs who will take part in the historical pageant to be staged by the Civic Federation at the high school on Friday, May 26, will hold the first complete rehearsal of the affair tonight at the high school. The complete history of the city and county will be shown by means of tableaux.

Information for the writing of the tableaux was secured partly from the work of the committee that is writing the pageant that is to be staged in connection with the county celebration of Indiana's centennial in October. The Civic Federation pageant was written by Mrs. Homer Miller and Miss Thelma Sack, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Barnes.

Lasalle's landing at the portage will be the first tableau. In succession the various events that have made history in South Bend and St. Joseph county will be shown. The tableaux will also show South Bend today by means of moving pictures that were taken through the Chamber of Commerce a few years ago. The story in the pictures has a plot which make it possible to show the industries, the residences and other scenes around the city.

MAY DECIDE HONORS

Saturday's Game in School League Expected to Find Champs.

Unless a tie in the standing results, Saturday's games in the school league will decide the school championship of the city. Two games in the title series between the winners in the four sections have been played. Saturday's games will be played at 3:30 o'clock at the Oliver playground. Following is the schedule: Kaley vs. Oliver, Diamond No. 2; Laurel vs. St. Hedwige, Diamond No. 1.

HOBSON'S CHOICE IS WELL PATRONIZED.

Unanimously acclaimed as the best comedy in years, "Hobson's Choice," with Molly Pearson in the role of Maggie Hobson, continues to attract all classes of theatergoers to the Princess theater, Chicago. The charm and broad humor of this delightful comedy of Harold Brighouse makes a strong appeal to the hearts of the audiences. Its depiction of the quaint character types around Manchester in Lancashire, and the humor the author extracts from the homely, rough life of these people of the soil, is such as to keep the spectator in continual laughter. The atmosphere is picturesque in the styles of 1880, and the bustles of the ladies give a hint of the famous "Bunty." The story of the piece concerns a lass who wins her husband, pulls the strings and outmaneuvers everybody until she remains lady of all she surveys. Every role in the play is splendidly acted by a well balanced cast, and it has been staged with expert skill by E. Iden Payne.

In the cast besides Miss Pearson are Viola Roach, Alice Seymour, Harold De Becker, A. G. Andrews, Marie Hildebrand, Harry J. Ashford, Whitford Kane, Walter Fredericks, Agnes Dornter, Barnett Parker and Robert Forsythe.

As a worthy successor to "A Pair of Silk Stockings," "Hobson's Choice" bids fair to remain at the Princess theater for the summer months. Its cordial reception by the critics and the unstinting praise lavished upon it stand out as one of the big successes of the current season.

The scale of prices at the Princess for "Hobson's Choice" will be $1.50 for the best seats nights and Saturday matinees and $1 for the seats at Thursday matinees.
